The Shuttle XPC cube Barebone SH570R8 is able to accommodate up to four 3.5 inch hard drives for enormous storage capacity - ideal for both home and commercial applications. However, this barebones platform is way more than just about storage - the SH570R8 has enough grunt under its aluminium bonnet to be a high-end gaming PC or a workstation for intensive graphics or even video applications. Its black-brushed aluminium case shows how discreet and stylish a powerful PC can look.
