Experience immersive gaming audio with the ASTRO Gaming A20 X headset from Logitech. Designed for a range of platforms including PlayStation 5, Xbox, and Nintendo Switch, this headset delivers stereo sound with 7.1 Channel Virtual Surround Sound and DTS Headphone:X 2.0 for an enhanced gaming experience. The full-size ear-parts and bio-cellulose diaphragm ensure rich sound quality, while the lightweight design promotes comfort during long gaming sessions. With wireless Bluetooth and LIGHTSPEED connectivity options, switching between devices is effortless, making this headset a versatile choice for gamers. The A20 X features a boom microphone with Blue VO!CE Mic Technology that provides clear communication during gameplay. Its omnidirectional microphone captures sound from all directions, ensuring your voice is heard loud and clear. The headset also boasts a long battery life, rechargeable lithium polymer technology, and a quick recharge time. With PLAYSYNC Technology and customizable controls, adjust your audio settings for the perfect gaming experience at the touch of a button.
