Zeblaze Btalk Pro Smartwatch (silver)

The Zeblaze Btalk Pro is a stylish smartwatch featuring a large 1.91" display, Bluetooth calling, advanced health tracking, and a battery that lasts up to 21 days in power-saving mode. With a slim design just 10.9 mm thick, screen brightness of up to 600 nits, and a screen-to-body ratio of 75.8%, the device has a modern look and provides convenient access to essential information throughout the day. Additionally, the Zeblaze Connect app makes it easy to analyze health and fitness data, download watch faces, and much more.

Large Screen and Slim Design

The 1.91" TFT display offers natural colors and a large viewing area, making it very convenient to read notifications, workout results, and health data. Brightness of up to 600 nits improves screen readability and ensures a clear image even in bright sunlight, while Always-On Display (AOD) allows you to view the most important information at all times. In addition, the slim case measuring 48.5 × 39.5 × 10.9 mm and the stylish design with 2.5D tempered glass give the watch a modern look that complements both athletic and everyday styles.

Bluetooth Calls, Notifications, and More

Thanks to its built-in microphone and speaker, the smartwatch allows you to make phone calls directly. Features include dialing, contacts, call history, and a voice assistant. Additionally, the watch supports notifications for messages and app events, allowing you to stay connected without having to constantly reach for your phone.

Health monitoring around the clock

The Zeblaze Btalk Pro uses the OHR Fusion biometric sensor to monitor key physiological parameters. The smartwatch measures heart rate from the wrist, tracks SpO2 blood oxygen levels, analyzes sleep quality, and tracks calories burned. It also offers breathing exercises and women's health tracking. All of this helps you better understand your daily activity and recovery, and makes it easier to spot any concerning symptoms.

Daily activity and training

The smartwatch supports physical activity tracking and records, among other things, the number of steps, calories burned, pace, and distance covered. You can also choose from a wide variety of sport modes, such as running or jumping rope. The watch will also remind you to get moving. An interesting feature is Auto Goal, which analyzes your activity level and sets a daily step goal based on that.

Over 300 watch faces and extensive customization options

You can customize the watch to match your personal style thanks to the extensive library of watch faces available in the app. You have access to 6 system watch faces and over 300 ready-to-download watch faces. The watch also supports creating your own designs, allowing you to use your favorite photos to create a completely personalized screen layout.

Practical features for everyday use

The Zeblaze Btalk Pro offers a set of tools useful for everyday use. Among the available features, you'll find a weather forecast, calendar, calculator, alarm clock, timer, stopwatch, Do Not Disturb mode, hydration reminders, and the option to locate your phone and watch. Additionally, the smartwatch lets you control your smartphone's music and camera right from your wrist.

Long Battery Life and Fast Charging

The 300 mAh battery ensures long battery life without the need for frequent charging. In power-saving mode, the smartwatch can last up to 21 days; during typical use, up to 14 days; and with heavy use, up to 7 days. It also supports continuous voice calls for up to 285 minutes. A full charge takes about 1.5 hours, so the device is quickly back to full readiness.

Zeblaze Connect app

The Zeblaze Connect app lets you conveniently manage the watch's settings, analyze health and fitness data, and download additional watch faces. It is compatible with devices running Android 6.0 and iOS 13.0 (or later), so it works seamlessly with most modern smartphones.
