BenQ SW272QN is a 27-inch QHD IPS monitor designed for photography, video, and color-critical creative work. The display delivers wide color coverage across Adobe RGB, DCI-P3, sRGB, and Rec. 709 and includes factory calibration, 3D-LUT support, and hardware calibration readiness to help maintain consistent, accurate color. Multiple inputs and workflow features such as USB-C with up to 90 watt Power Delivery, dual HDMI and DisplayPort, an integrated SD card reader, a USB 3.1 hub, and a built-in KVM switch simplify connectivity and media handling. The monitor also supports HDR10, offers a high-visibility 300 cd/m2 brightness and a 178-degree viewing angle, and includes a fully adjustable stand for comfortable, long sessions at the desk.
