The Lenovo ThinkPad E16 Gen 3 22AY is a 16-inch business notebook designed for productivity and hybrid work. It delivers a spacious 16:10 IPS display with anti-glare treatment and a high screen-to-body ratio to make documents, spreadsheets, and presentations easier to view and navigate. The laptop balances mobile responsiveness and sustained performance with an Intel Core Ultra 7 processor, Intel Arc Graphics 140V, and on-device AI acceleration for faster multitasking and smarter app experiences.

Connectivity and security support modern workflows with Thunderbolt 4 and USB Power Delivery, HDMI with 4K support, Wi-Fi 6E, and Gigabit Ethernet for stable wired connections. Collaboration features include a hybrid FHD/IR webcam with privacy shutter and Windows Hello, dual-array microphones, and Harman audio tuned for Dolby Atmos to provide clearer calls and richer media
