The HPE Aruba Networking CX 6000 48p 10M/100M/1G 4p SFP 1G Switch delivers connectivity and advanced networking capabilities to meet diverse business needs. With a switching capacity of 104 Gbps and a throughput of 77.3 Mpps, this switch ensures performance for high-demand environments. It features 48 10/100/1000 Base-T ports and 4 Gigabit SFP uplink ports, providing scalable networking options for growing infrastructures.

Designed with reliability in mind, the switch incorporates side-to-side airflow for thermal management, operating efficiently in temperatures ranging from 0°C to 45°C. It includes essential security features such as SSL encryption and multiple authentication methods like RADIUS and TACACS+. Additionally, the built-in remote management support, including SNMP, MIB, and CLI, allows for integration and management within existing network frameworks.
