certification. With SGS Eye Care features such as low blue light and low reflectivity, that help effectively reduce eye strain, and Corning® glass protection for superior durability, your visual experience is both brilliant and robust.

Innovative cooling solution

The new Cooler Boost Technology, enhanced by Intra Flow design, is a key component of the Stealth 16 AI+ B3W. By redirecting cool air directly to the CPU and GPU, Intra Flow optimizes thermal flow at the source, increasing cooling efficiency while reducing both temperatures and noise. This advanced design enables the system to deliver stable, high-level performance when running demanding applications.
