The magnetic case for Go 10.3 is made of a sleek artificial leather, providing a gentle touch and safeguarding the device against scratches. The magnetic flap can function as a pen loop to securely hold the stylus. And when it's not needed, it can be easily removed.

Read Books Hands-free

Not only does the case provide protection for the Go 10.3 against scratches and bumps, but it also doubles as a convenient stand. Effortlessly fold the case and indulge in the pleasure of reading books and listening to audios on the device, without any discomfort in your wrists.

Flexible Flap for Easy and Secure Use

The device can be used in two different ways thanks to the removable magnetic flap. When you need to carry the stylus, simply attach the flap to create a pen loop that will keep your pen secure. If you're into exploring the full potential of your device, try removing the flap for a more unrestricted experience.

Gentle Touch with a Textured Surface

Using an innovative method on the select vegan leather, the case provides a sleek texture that feels incredibly soft and comfortable. And the front cover has the capability to automatically put the device into sleep mode. Once the cover is folded back, the Go 10.3 wakes up and is all set for reading and note-taking.

Indulge in the Convenient On-the-go Experience

With the magnetic case, the Go 10.3 takes outdoor activities to a whole new level of enjoyment. Grab the case and your device and embark on your journey right away.
