Sound is Survival.

It’s time to level up with the JBL Quantum 610 Wireless. JBL QuantumSURROUND delivers a fully immersive experience. And the 50mm drivers powered by JBL QuantumSOUND SIGNATURE make every moment epic, whether you’re on a stealth mission or in the heat of a massive battle. Your voice will sound loud and clear with the flip-up boom mic, and you can plot and strategize with your team on DISCORD, Skype, and TeamSpeak. Enjoy longer gameplay with 40 hours of battery life, or plug in for endless sessions with the USB charging cable.

Features and Benefits

Live the game with JBL QuantumSURROUND™ and DTS

Get your head in the game. Immerse yourself in an epic experience and enjoy sound bursting from every angle, all courtesy of JBL QuantumSURROUND*. Also equipped with DTS headphone:X v2.0. Available only on PC.

Be at the center of the game with JBL QuantumSOUND Signature

Every moment of game play is thrilling, from sneaking up on an enemy who made the tiniest rustle to feeling the rumble of a huge explosion. With 50mm drivers powered by JBL QuantumSOUND you'll always have an edge.

All day gaming with lossless 2.4GHz wireless

The last thing you need at a key moment is your audio dropping, but with gaming grade lossless 2.4GHz wireless, experience complete freedom, whether you're fixed firmly in your seat or roaming the room.

Play and charge at the same time

Go harder and play longer. Connect the USB charging cable for unlimited gaming sessions, or enjoy more than 40 hours of wireless battery life. No need to press "pause" on your fun.

Voice focus flip-up boom microphone

Make sure your voice comes through loud and clear during critical moments with the flip-up, directional boom mic. And thanks to the auto on/off and mute feature, you can quickly cut out when the real world comes calling.

Lightweight, durable construction
